The Kaiser Permanente Seafair Torchlight Run is making a celebratory return. This fan favorite will once again fill the streets of Seattle as thousands of participants lace up their sneakers and race ahead of the iconic Alaska Airlines Seafair Torchlight Parade.

This year, Seafair is taking both the Torchlight Run and Parade back to the night—and what better way to celebrate than with a Neon-Themed 5K. Whether you're rocking glowing shoelaces, bright body paint, or a full LED costume, we want to see your shine.
